SHARES AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

9. The company may, by special resolution altering these Regulations,
 - (a) increase the number of its shares by creating new shares;
 - (b) reduce the number of its shares by cancelling shares which have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, or by consolidating its existing shares, whether issued or not, into a smaller number of shares;
 - (c) Provide for different classes of shares by attaching to certain of the shares referred, deferred or other special rights or restrictions whether in regard to dividend, voting, repayment, or otherwise;
Provided that the voting rights of equity shares shall comply with the provision of sections 31 and 50 of the Act and the voting rights of preference shares shall comply with the provisions of section 31 and 49 of the Act.
 - (d) in accordance with section 59 of the Act create preference shares which are, or at the option of the company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as may be provided, but subject to compliance with the provisions of sections 60 to 63 of the Act.
10.
 - (1) The Company shall not issue any new or unissued shares for cash unless the same are offered in the first instance to all the shareholders or to all shareholders of the class or classes being issued in proportion as nearly as may be their existing holdings.
 - (2) The offer to the existing shareholders shall be by notice specifying the number of shares to which the shareholder is entitled to be subscribed and limiting a time, not being less than twenty-eight days after the date of services of the notice after the expiration of which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined.
 - (3) After the expiration of such time, or on receipt of an intimation from the shareholder that he declines to accept the shares offered, the board of directors may, subject to the terms of any resolution of the company and to the provisions of section 202 of the Act, dispose of the same at a price not less than that specified in the offer in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company.
 - (4) This regulation shall not be alterable except with the unanimous consent of all the members of the company.
11. If at any time the shares are divided into different classes, the rights attached to any class may be varied with the written consent of the holders of at least three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or the sanction of a special resolution of the holders of the shares of that class.
12. Subject to compliance with the provisions of section 60 to 63 of the Act the company may exercise the powers conferred by section 59 of the Act
To.
 - a. purchase its own shares;
 - b. acquire its own shares by a voluntary transfer to it or nominee for it;
 - c. forfeit in manner hereinafter appearing any shares with an unpaid liability for nonpayment of calls other sums payable in respect thereof.
13. The company may pay commission or brokerage to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe or agreeing to procure subscriptions for any shares in the company provided that the payment does not exceed ten per centum of the price at which the shares are issued.
14. Shares certificates shall be issued in accordance with section 53 of the Act.

CALLS ON SHARES

15. (1) Where shares are issued upon the terms that any part of the price payable therefore is not payable at a fixed time the board of directors may from time to time make calls upon the shareholders in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, provided that no call shall be payable less than twentyeight days from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each shareholder shall subject to receiving not less than fourteen days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called upon his shares;

(2) A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.
16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
17. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
18. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the date appointed for payment to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding five per centum per annum as the board of directors may determine, but the board of directors be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
19. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on application therefore or an allotment, or at any fixed date shall for the purposes of these Regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in the case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, sale or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
20. As between shares of the same class the company shall not differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid or the times of payment.
21. If the company shall receive from any shareholder all or any part of the moneys not presently payable or called upon any shares held by him the sum shall not be treated as a payment in respect of the shares until such sum becomes due and payable on such shares and in the mean time shall be deemed to be a loan to the company upon which the company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding five per centum per annum as may be agreed between the board of directors and such shareholder.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

22. If a shareholder fails to pay any call or installment of a call, including any sum deemed to be a call under regulation 19 hereof, the board of directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which have accrued.
23. The notice shall name a further day not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the times appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
24. If the requirements of such notice are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.
25. A forfeited share may either be cancelled by alteration of these regulations or may be retained as a treasury share until sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the board of directors think fit.

26. A person whose share have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares and shall be bound to surrender to the company for cancellation of the share certificate or certificates in respect of the shares so forfeited but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of such moneys in respect of the shares.
27. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the secretary of the company and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

LIEN

28. (1) The company shall have a first and paramount lien on all shares issued with an unpaid liability for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share.
- (2) The company's lien shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.
29. If any sum in respect of which the company has a lien is presently payable the board of directors, after serving the notice required by regulations 22 and 23 hereof, may, at any time before the payment required by such notice has been made, sell any share on which the company has such lien instead or forfeiting it in accordance with regulation 24 hereof.
30. (1) To give effect to any such sale the board of directors may authorize some persons to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
- (2) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share comprised in such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall the title to his shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
31. The proceeds of such sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale but the company shall not be bound to make such payment unless and until such person has surrendered to the company for cancellation his share certificate or certificates relating to the shares so sold.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

32. Subject to regulation 8(a) hereof shares shall be transferable and transfers shall be registered in the manner provided by section 95 and 98 of the Act.
33. In the event of the death of any shareholder or in the event of the ownership of any share devolving upon any person by reason of his being the legal personal representative, receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy of the holder, or by operation of law, the provisions of section 99 of the Act shall apply.

DIVIDENDS

34. The company may, by ordinary resolution, declare dividends in respect of any year or other period but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the board of directors.
35. No dividend shall be paid unless;
- a. The company will, after such payment, be able to pay its debts as they fall due;
- b. The amount of such payment does not exceed the amount of the company's income surplus immediately prior to the making of such payment.
36. The board of directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits or income surplus of the company such sums as they think proper in order to provide for a known liability, including a disputed or contingent liability, or as a depreciation or replacement provision and may carry forward any profits or income surplus which they may think prudent to distribute.

37. All dividends shall be declared and paid as a fixed sum per share and not as a proportion of the amount paid in respect of a share.
38. The board of directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any shareholder all sums of money presently payable by him to the company in respect of his shares.
39. (1) Any dividend payable in cash may be paid by cheque or warrant sent by post directed to the registered address of the shareholder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one who is first named on the register of members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
(2) Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends.
(3) Every dividend payment shall be accompanied by a statement showing the gross amount of the dividend and any tax deducted or deemed to be deducted there from.
40. No dividend shall bear interest against the company.
